

Queen Charlotte Islands

David Cooksley, British Columbia

The Queen Charlotte Islands are situated 85 miles south west of Prince Rupert off the coast of British Columbia. The archipelago consists of over 150 Islands, of which the two largest are Moresby to the south and Graham Island to the north.

In this issue:

Cops and Robbers on East
Europe's borders	4
Roving by the Rovuma	10
Prague	13
Globe Calendar	15
Mutual Aid	19
Publications	20
Review of London Meetings	21
Club meetings	23